

Volunteer Workshop Featuring Google for Education 2018

University of Peradeniya

Date: 26th of June 2018

Time: 9:00 AM - 12:30 PM

Time	Program schedule
Introduction 9:00 AM -9:15 AM	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- How Universities are benefitted from the Cloud-based collaborative platform in Australia- Able to provide, personalize learning paths, research and AI
9:15 AM-10:15 AM Session 1	Extending learning beyond the lecture hall with Google Classroom (deep dive, tips, and hints) Effective use of digital Tools in a Collaborative environment, and for research Storing in Google Drive and Team drive for Collaboration for Faculty staff and Students
10:20 AM-11:20 AM Session 2	Becoming content creators rather content consumers Formative assessment, feedbacks and survey research run through Google Forms. Automated marking. Create your creative ideas through Google Keep and integrate with G Suite E-publication, Sharing documents with access control and time limit.
11:30 AM-12:30 PM Session 3	Creating intranet sites for your faculty /department and delegate staff to manage <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Publishing through Google New Sites and Blogging- Single place of resources repository-Creating intranet for individual departments and delegate department staff to manage Academics/ Educators are lifelong learners GEG Community to connect with other researchers, extending your network Connecting with the Global community through Youtube, channels, Google Hangouts. <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Connecting Educators globally- Google help centre, Google Training App , EDU channel and keep up with the updates

Note:

- 1.) Workshop participants must have a personal Gmail account or University G Suite account to access the G Suite tools
- 2.) Please bring your laptop (fully charged) and smart mobile devices (with 4G connection) for hotspot (if the Internet connection at the University drops)

Nathan Sooriyakumar

About the presenter

Nathan was a presenter at the EdTech Team Global Summits featuring Google for Education (Melbourne) 2015/2016, (Canberra, Auckland, and Sydney) 2017, and AISNSW STEM 2016 Symposium and Digital Technologies Conference 2016 and AIS NSW DIGISTEM CONFERENCE 2017 and Google for Education Summit Canberra 2018.

Nathan currently working as Educational Technologist (ICT Coordinator/IT Manager) and a member of the senior leadership team at Tyndale Christian School, NSW, Australia. He initiated and currently working on a project called Education4Everyone (www.education4everyone.org) in a voluntary capacity.

Qualifications: MSc in Internetworking University of Technology Sydney (2012) , BSc Majored in Computer Science and Physics, Microsoft Certified Professional, Microsoft Certified Solution Associate for Windows server 2012, Google Educator (L1) ,Vmware VCP 5.5 , ITIL Foundation,